See how Lavu helped a struggling restaurant on an episode of Kitchen Nightmares with Gordon Ramsay.

"Our old POS system was like a dinosaur. It was horrid. Now, it's unreal. It's the best thing I've ever seen in my life." – Samantha, Server on Kitchen Nightmares.

A restaurant POS that pays!

Finally, a game-changing offer that gives you cash back to cover all your costs and more. With Dual Pricing, you're in for an extraordinary payment solution. Offset credit card processing fees and reinvest your savings.

A cash discount program with dual pricing works by rewarding customers for paying with cash. When a customer is ready to pay, the customer can choose the cash price which applies a cash discount off the Card Price total. If the guest pays in cash, they save. If the guest pays with a card they pay the higher listed price offsetting up to 99% of credit card processing fees.
